OILY BILL'S
LITTLE JOBTries to Rescue the Annexation
Ring.DOESN'T BELIEVE
IN CONSPIRACYThe Proceedings of the Senate and House at Yesterday's Busy Session.

The Senate yesterday morning, at the suggestion of "Oily Bill" White, tabled the resolution protesting against the annexation of the Territory of Hawaii to the State of California. There was considerable time spent in discussing the matter, and it was only after several members had been granted the privilege of the floor that the question was disposed of as stated.

In the afternoon the Senate bill was taken in hand once more, with the usual changing and readjusting, while the usual amount of talking and noisy sparring were indulged in.

Now that the dog days of summer are here, the Senate has thrown dignity to the winds, and has gone in for comfort. Coats are no longer kept upon the backs, and the display of brightly-colored suspenders outshines the vivid oratory of the Senators. "Oily Bill" wears a pair of parrot-green supporters. Kanuha's are of a delicate cream hue. Striped shirts are the rule. Smoking is no longer prohibited, and the steel blue fumes of fragrant manillas, "two-fors" and the "Hawaiian Senate flower de Mazumas" fill the Senate chamber with fragrance, and almost conceal the rotund form of the president. In many respects the Senate resembles the traditional Wouter Van Twiller Parliament in old Dutch New York.

MORNING SESSION.

The Senate worked its brains and its jaws yesterday morning over concurrent resolution No. 4, which resents the alleged attempt to annex the Territory of Hawaii to the State of California. "Oily Bill" White threw himself into the fray with a vengeance, and did what he could to kill the resolution. He was not successful in his attempt; for the Humphreys measure was placed on the table, and will in a few days come up for consideration once more.

As soon as the bill had been read Senator J. Brown moved that the concurrent resolution pass. He was followed by Mr. Carter, who suggested that copies of the resolution be sent to the heads of the Legislature at Sacramento. He was opposed by Senator Achil, who said that this work would be but so much additional expense.

White made a vigorous assault on the resolution. He declared that there was no attempt being made to annex the Territory of Hawaii to the State of California, and that to take notice of the so-called movement, he called it, would result in actual harm to the people and to the political condition of things in Hawaii.

It was at this point that Mr. Brown withdrew his motion, and the resolution was tabled.

The salary bill from the House came up from the House and was compared item for item with that of the Senate. The Senators professed to be very much shocked at the extravagance of the Lower House, and congratulated themselves upon what they called their frugality.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

When the Senate assembled in the afternoon Senator Carter introduced the following resolution:

To the President of the Senate:
The members of the public expenditures committee, to whom was referred certain items under Superintendent of Public Works, begs to report as follows:

Unpaid bills 1897 to date, amounting to $10,021.61, are due and unpaid, and I believe the Senate should see that these worthy people get their money, therefore recommend that these items be inserted in the bill.

Unpaid bills from same department bureau of health, amounting to $1,509.45, are due and unpaid, and these items should be settled, therefore, I recommend that they be inserted in the bill.

Treasury Department, unpaid bills amounting to $454.45, also to be inserted.

Other items of loan bill should be paid whenever a loan is provided.

Items, "Expenses, Bubonic Plague," have already been inserted in the bill.

Carter inserted the following bill:

Unpaid bills 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900 and 1901—

Department Public Works..... $10,021.61

Treasury Department..... 454.45

Health Department..... 1,509.40

$11,985.46

Following him came Senator J. Brown, who introduced the following:

"Resolved, that the secretary of the Senate be, and is hereby instructed to have the daily journal printed in both the Hawaiian and the English languages (separately), and to provide one hundred copies of each for the use and disposition of the Senators, and that, when complete, be furnished to each Senator, one copy of each of said journals, with the name of such Sena-

J. G. WOOLLEY, PROHIBITION
LEADER, COMING TO HAWAII

John G. Woolley, who is coming to organize the Prohibition party in Hawaii, was the nominee of the fourth party for President last year. He got 28,655 votes in a poll of about 14,000,000, a falling off in the party strength since 1892 of 54,000 but a gain over the vote of 1894. Mr. Woolley is a radical of radicals and did not hesitate, while on the stump, to call President McKinley the "murderer of the Filipinos" and the "rum-seller of the canteens." He is now on his way around the world and will arrive in Honolulu soon.

MAILE ILIMA NINE KICKS AGAINST UMPIRE'S DECISION

Trouble is brewing between the Honolulu Athletic Club and the Maile Ilima baseball nines over the award of the game to the former last Saturday. The Maile Ilimas have made a formal protest as to the outcome of the game, and demand that it be replayed. The protest is made on the grounds that the Athletic Club nine did not appear in a proper uniform on the diamond, alleging that this constitutes one of the grounds for depriving the winners of the game. Further, they declare they have witnesses to prove that the umpire's decision in putting Lemon out at the home plate was not in accordance with the run that Lemon made, the Maile Ilima's claiming that he was not touched with the ball. The same declaration is made of Henry Sheldon, whom they claim reached the home plate without being touched with the sphere.

Just what will be the outcome of the trouble may not be told yet, as there has been no conference between the respective captains of the teams. The protest which the Maile Ilima team has made was reduced to writing and sent to the captain of the Honolulu Athletic team, as follows:

Honolulu, Oahu, June 24, 1901.

To the President and Members of the Honolulu Baseball League.

Sirs: We, the undersigned, captain and manager of the Maile Ilima baseball team, hereby enter protest as to infringement of Spaulding's baseball rules, and as to decision given by officials on June 22, 1901, when the aforesaid baseball team was playing a game of baseball against the Honolulu Athletic Club baseball team on the Makiki parade ground, as per schedule arranged by the Honolulu Baseball League.

and ask that the final decision in the game be set aside and that the game be replayed at some date to be set by the said league. We base our protest on the following grounds:

1. The Honolulu Athletic Baseball team appeared on the field or place without uniform conforming in style and color as prescribed in Spaulding's baseball rules of 1900, which are the adopted rules of the Honolulu Baseball League.

2. On the decision given by the umpire when Henry Sheldon in the seventh inning was running from third base to home was declared out at the home plate without being touched with a ball.

3. On a decision given by the umpire when Hugh Lemon in the eighth inning was running from third base to home was declared out at the home plate before the ball was caught by the man at the home plate. For the said protest we have witnesses to certify to the above. We respectfully remain,

E. V. RICHARDSON,
Captain Maile Ilima Baseball Team.

GEORGE LUCAS, Manager.

P. Gleason of the Honolulu Athletic Club team says that the Maile Ilimas, according to the rules, should have filed their protest within twenty-four hours after the game was played, instead of waiting forty-eight hours to make up their minds what to do in the premises.

Mr. Gleason added:

"The Honolulu Athletic Club ordered uniforms about four weeks ago, but were unable to appear on the field informed on account of a misunderstanding between the firm and the manager of Honolulu Athletic Club baseball team. At a league meeting held some weeks ago it was agreed that in case of a dispute the captain only was to speak upon the matter, but at last Saturday's game the Maile Ilimas, as a whole, would not give the umpire a chance to talk, and further, the captain of the Maile Ilima Club would not heed the umpire's words, thereby breaking their word of about two weeks ago.

"This is the first time the Maile Ilimas played in the league, but they want to have a little experience and let the captain talk instead of the whole team. This protesting and fighting a game is all bosh, and it tends to materially lessen baseball interest in Honolulu. There was one protest entered at the ground, and that was about Lemon being put out at home.

"I met the captain of the Maile Ilima team before the game, and asked him if he objected to our style of uniforms. He said: 'No; it is all right.' This and the other protest, along with Lemon's, was not entered at the grounds, but was entered on Monday, June 24th.

"I think the rules provide that a protest should be entered twenty-four hours after the game, and they only sent it in on June 20th, and they are therefore too late."

The Senators then put on their coats, threw away their cigars, and went home.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE HOUSE

There was little accomplished in the House yesterday in the way of results that would interest the public. The Representatives did a good day's work however, and seemed to be trying to get their end of the lawmaking business in shipshape before the final adjournment, some three weeks hence.

MORNING SESSION.

At 11:30 the House took a recess until 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The major portion of the afternoon session was taken up with the review of the expense bill preparatory to its third reading. Clerk Meheula was some two hours going from cover to cover. At the conclusion of the reading the Representatives offered several amendments. Among these the following were the more important:

Emmeluth suggested that the sum of $5,000 be set aside for the St. Louis Exposition. He stated that there was already an appropriation made for the Charleston Exposition, by means of which the educational exhibit now in Buffalo would be taken to the Southern city. The speaker suggested that it would not be a bad idea to make a display at St. Louis that would outlive anything of the kind that the Islands had ever made. The motion was passed.

Dickey asked that the assessor of Maui be reimbursed to the extent of $336.70 because of extra taxes he had paid into the treasury. After some discussion, in which the introducer of the resolution assured the legislators that there would be no money taken out of the treasury, but that a transfer would be made from one book in the Department of Public Works to another, the motion was passed.

Five thousand two hundred dollars, on the motion of Beckley, was set aside with which to subsidize a steamboat to ply between this port and Molokai.

The hour of 5 o'clock having arrived, the House adjourned.
